CITYWIDE ENROLLMENT (DISTRICT AND CHARTER), 2015-16 TO 2024-25

New York City Public Schools (NYCPS) is committed to thoughtful collaboration with districts and communities to collectively strengthen schools, support students and families, and respond to demographic and population changes in New York City.

K-12 Enrollment - District I-32 and Charter Schools

Source: Audited Register and Charter Headcount; includes district and charter school enrollment only

- Enrollment in D1-32 schools decreased slightly in 2024-2025, remaining approximately stable compared to the steeper declines following the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Citywide, K-12 enrollment in District 1-32 schools and charter schools has declined by about 10% since its peak in the 2016-2017 school year.

Students Leaving the District:

- At the elementary school level, the largest number of students leaving District 21 enroll in non-public schools. Since 2019-20, this number has decreased by 4%, as compared to the overall number of elementary school-aged residents, which has decreased by 5%.
- At the middle school level, the largest number of students leaving District 21 enroll in non-public schools. Since 2019-20, this number has remained about the same, as compared to the overall number of middle school-aged residents, which has likewise remained about the same.

Students Coming into the District:

- At the elementary school level, a smaller number of students living in other districts come into District 21 schools (697) than District 21 residents who leave for other district schools (1,145).
- At the middle school level, a greater number of students living in other districts come into District 21 schools (3,062) than District 21 residents who leave for other district schools (735).

BUILDING UTILIZATION

Each year, the SCA publishes the Blue Book, a report analyzing the capacity and enrollment for every NYCPS building across the city. "Under-Utilized Buildings" reflects the projected count of buildings that have at least 150 excess seats.

Table 14: Count of NYCPS Buildings by Utilization Status

DISTRICT 75

NYCPS’s District 75 provides specialized instructional support for students with significant challenges, such as Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), significant cognitive delays, emotional disability, sensory impairment, and multiple disabilities. District 75 serves students through a number of different program models.

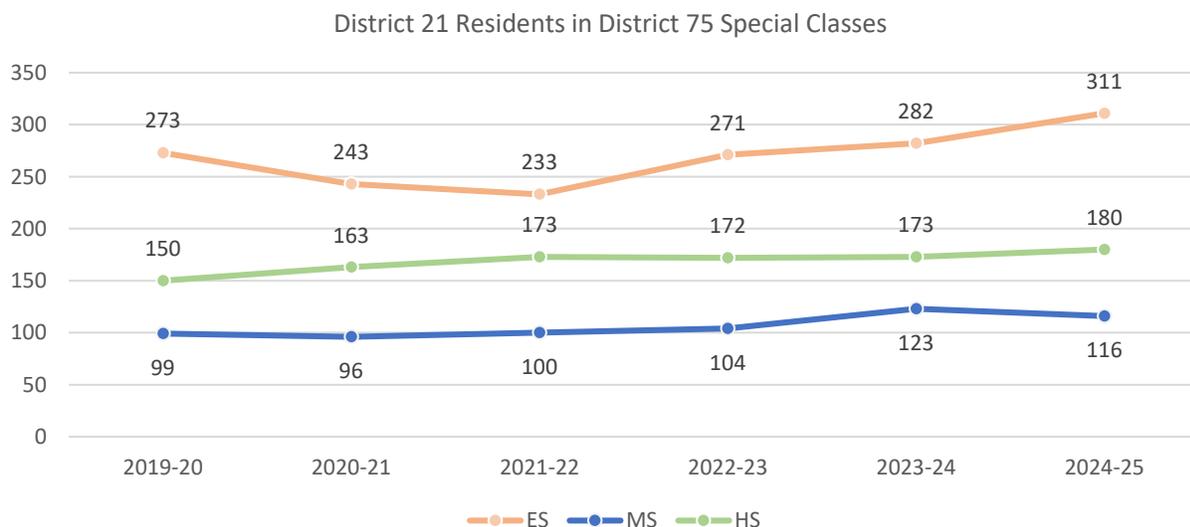

- Most District 75 students attend Special Class programs, which operate as distinct schools and may be located in standalone sites or co-located with district schools.
- A smaller number of students attend Inclusion Programs, in which students receive District 75 services within general education classes at a district school partner.
